

SUMMARY SYMPOSIUM AGENDA

Monday, May 23rd

Morning and afternoon Sessions

Welcome by Co-Chairs

Presentation by US Government Officials concerning Global Methane Project Initiatives.

Panel on how a large scale methane project can be identified and developed to degas a coal mine, including technologies that can be used and stages of development.

Panel on uses of produced methane gas for many different needs including power production, CNG for transportation, industrial applications, hydrogen production and other purposes.

Tuesday, May 24th

Morning

Panels on financing of global methane projects including utilizing various government support programs, specialized methane project finance funds and environmental and emissions credits and incentives.

Afternoon

Bus transportation to The Greenbrier

Evening

Outline of CDX Project that is the subject of the field trip and Roundtable dinner discussion with all participants.

Wednesday, May 25th

Morning

Transportation to the site of the field trip and complete viewing and discussion of project with engineers and drilling crews.

Afternoon

Transportation back to Washington DC